THE DOSE WAS FATAL THE OFFICIAL LINE

William Randle, of Hickman, Died From Morphine Poisoning.

He Took it in a Glass of Beer and Lingered for Several Hours Thereafter.

INQUEST WAS HELD THIS MORNING

William M. Randle, of Hickman, Ky., a son of Judge Randle, died this morning about 7 o'clock at the city hall from a dose of morphine taken yesterday afternoon late with suicidal intent.

He had been lingering between life and death since 6 o'clock last evening, and hope was abandoned soon after he was pumped out by the doctors and failed to rally.

Yesterday afternoon Randle and Ernest Ozment visited a number of saloons and finally Randle stopped in a drug store and bought 15 cents worth of morphine. At the next saloon he emptied it into his glass of beer, saying it was headache powder.

Near Fourth and Broadway a short time afterwards he wanted to sit down and go to sleep but his companion would not permit it. Randle then stated that the powder he had taken was morphine and "in two hours he would be in hell." It seems he concluded his career had been no credit to the family and he declined to end it.

Ozment waited him towards the city hall, but Randle could get no further than the telephone office. Dr. Doyle, who was at the city hall, was notified and had the unconscious man removed to the basement of the city hall, where a number of visiting doctors who were attending the convention upstairs worked on him.

He was pumped out and removed to the city hall yard.

Coroner Peal held an inquest at the Nancy undertaking establishment this morning at 10 o'clock and the verdict was that the deceased committed suicide.

The deceased was a bookkeeper, but for some time past had been conducting a bowling alley at Hickman. He came here several days ago and had been drinking heavily.

He was 33 years old, unmarried, and comes of one of the best families in this section of the state.

His brother-in-law, Dr. Lunt, of Fulton, who is here attending the State medical meeting, was with him and did all he could to save him.

The remains will be shipped to Hickman for burial some time today, probably at 6 o'clock.

BUSINESS SUSPENDED.

Louisville, Ky., May 8—The prominent brokerage firm of Hunt and Fitchins, doing business in the board of trade building, suspended business this morning. It could not be learned just what caused the suspension but it is stated that "Bob" Hunt has been heavily caught on the short side of L. and N. market.

Postmaster F. M. Fisher was this morning notified that the postoffice department has allowed the extra clerk asked for the Paducah postoffice, effective July 1.

Postmaster Fisher recommended the additional clerk several months ago, but the matter was not definitely acted on until yesterday.

HE IS GAME

Prof. Record Had a Narrow Escape at the Park.

He Fell Out Clung to an Electric Wire and Afterwards Made His Perilous Ride.

Prof. H. S. Record, the trick bicyclist who performs his wonderful feat of riding down a ladder into the cycle whirly every night at the park, had a narrow escape from possibly instant death last night while starting on his perilous journey.

His wheel slipped as he was leaning the top of the 75 foot ladder and he fell. In his descent he caught on an electric wire on which the lights are strung on the ladder and catching the ladder with his foot, swung up, in this way saved himself from falling. His wheel fell to the ground. Prof. Record is game, however, and soaring his wheel made the best ride he has ever made, but it was against the advice of the crowd and the management. The night before he was slightly hurt by the tire of his bicycle coming off.

Tonight the hill at the park will change to the farce comedy of "My Uncle from Japan." This is an excellent piece and a large crowd will undoubtedly be out to see the initial production here. Business is now improving and the company is doing splendid work.

FAST RUN.

THE DICK FOWLER IS COMING "A-RUNNING" WITH CAIROITES.

The Dick Fowler is making a flying run to Paducah this afternoon with a crowd of Cairo people who will attend the Violin Allen performance at The Kentucky tonight. The boat left Cairo at 3 o'clock and expects to reach Paducah at 8 p. m. if not sooner. The trip is going to be a record breaker.

Among the Cairo people who are coming are: Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Clarke, J. H. Hartley, Miss Annie Howard, Miss Josie Hulding, Mrs. M. Flynn, Mrs. C. H. Brackett, Miss Elizabeth Schnier, Mrs. Beniah Sheets, Mrs. Bird and Mrs. Wilson, of Bird's Point, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. C. Fry, J. M. and E. L. Ellis.

TOWN COW QUESTION

It Will Shortly Come up in the City Council Again

Believed That This Time It Will be Decided as the Most Progressive People Want It.

THE STREET SPRINKLING QUESTION

A well known councilman said this morning that the town cow question would soon be brought up in the council again and that this time he thought that it would be acted on the reverse of the disposition which was made with it several weeks ago.

"I have been consulting several of the best citizens in regard to the matter," he said "and find that they favor it. I furthermore find that all men who oppose the ordinance's passage own a cow and are against the ordinance because it might cause them some little trouble in pasturing their cows. We missed carrying the ordinance only one vote and feel safe to say that we will win out this time."

The councilman also stated in regard to the sprinkling question that the biggest property owners were against the ordinance just because it would place a tax on their greater property than any other owning less real estate in the district.

"The ordinance was drawn up with the district clause so that the suburban residents would not have to bear the tax where no benefits were derived. The streets need sprinkling and the city cannot afford to have it done at its expense. Some argue that the streets do not need it but when the hot weather comes then they begin to kick and the councilman has to bear it all."

One of the biggest property owners in the district said that he was opposed to the ordinance because it would make him pay such a large tax but admitted that the street would be benefited as well as the health of the city and the comfort of the residents increased.

CROOKS PINCHED.

Woman's Best Friend.

Southern Convention Meets at Asheville N. C. Tomorrow for a Week

Many Prominent Men and Women are Gathering for the Big Meeting—Important Reports.

A PRESIDENT TO BE ELECTED

Asheville, N. C., May 8—Outward and visible signs are abundant that a great denominational gathering is on the tapis. Page after page of the hotel registers is filled with distinguished names and on the streets men of ministerial girth and countenance are to be encountered at every turn. These are the delegates to the forty-seventh session of the Southern Baptist convention, which convenes tomorrow for a week or more.

It will be the largest gathering of representatives of this great denomination ever held in the south. Between 1,200 and 1,500 delegates have received credentials and these will represent a constituency of 1,632,546 members. Within the bounds of the convention are 16,690 churches, 762 associations and 13,473 preachers. As many preachers as can possibly do so attend the annual meetings and there are a great many lay delegates and visitors. Among those already on the field are large delegations from Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Florida, Virginia, the Carolinas, Tennessee, Kentucky, Alabama and Georgia. About half the delegates are guests of hospitable residents of Asheville and vicinity, while the remainder are quartered in the leading hotels.

The present officers of the convention, all of whom are here or have sent word they will arrive before tomorrow morning, are as follows: President, the Hon. William J. Northen, ex-governor of Georgia; vice presidents, Hon. Jones Philip Eagle of Little Rock, the Hon. W. W. Heard of Benton Rouge, the Hon. Andrew H. Longino of Jackson, Miss., and the Hon. Joshua Levering of Baltimore; secretaries, Rev. Lansing Burrows, D.D., of Nashville, and Rev. Oliver Fuller Gregory of Baltimore; treasurer, Mr. George W. Norton of Louisville, and auditor, Rev. William Patrick Harvey, D.D., of Louisville.

The work of the convention is divided into three great departments: Foreign missions, home missions and Sunday schools. Each of these departments is represented by a board and the reception of reports from these boards will consume most of the time of the convention. Of the Sunday school board, which is located in Nashville, Dr. E. E. Folk is president and Dr. J. M. Frost secretary. Dr. W. W. Landrum is president of the home mission board, which has its headquarters in Atlanta, and which has for its secretary Dr. F. O. McCullum. The headquarters of the foreign mission board are in Richmond. Prof. C. H. Winston is the president and Dr. R. J. Willingham the secretary.

The members of the various boards are hard at work today putting the final touches to their reports preparatory to presenting them to the convention. All of these reports show gratifying progress during the past twelve months in the various departments of denominational work. The outlook for foreign missions, in particular, was never so bright. Heretofore Virginia has been the banner state in regard to the amount of contributions for the foreign mission field, but this year Kentucky is in the lead with Georgia and Texas close seconds. The reports show also that the year has been one of unusual activity in the Sunday school department.

Although the program will be confined largely to action on the reports of these three organizations of the church, an important feature of the convention will be the election of a president to succeed ex-Governor Northen, who has declined to al-

THIS IS THE SENTENCE AGAINST FORMER OWENSBORO BANKER.

FIVE YEARS'

Owensboro, May 8—Herman J. Naunheim, convicted in the federal court of embezzeling funds of the National Deposit bank of which he was assistant cashier, was sentenced to five years' imprisonment. He goes to the Atlanta prison.

Naunheim was for a number of years assistant cashier of the Owensboro National bank, and upon the consolidation of that bank with the National Deposit bank he went with the latter as teller. In the summer of 1906 a shortage of $11,000 in the National Deposit bank's funds was found. In September following Naunheim was indicted in the federal court upon six counts, charging him with embezzlement and with the alteration of the bank's books. He was tried last September, but the jury failed to agree.

Naunheim is a popular man and has many friends. He has been out on bond since his indictment nearly two years ago; he was found guilty upon the fifth count in the indictment, which charged the embezzlement of $1,000.

DIED AT STANFORD.

MR. JOHN REINHART, A FORMER MERCHANT HERE, DIES FROM OLD AGE.

News reached the city last night of the death yesterday at Stanford, Ky., of Mr. John Reinhart, formerly a well known shoe merchant in Paducah. Mr. Reinhart had been ill about a week.

He was for years in the boot and shoe business here and a few years ago sold out and with his son, Emil, went to Stanford and opened a grocery. He was a member of Plain City Lodge, F. and A. M. and Friendship Lodge, A. O. U. W., both of Paducah. He leaves three sons, Messrs. Emil, Will and George Reinhart. The remains will be buried at Stanford.

KENTUCKY MISSIONS.

SECOND IN THE LIST OF BAPTIST MISSIONS.

At the Southern Baptist convention at Asheville, N. C., the official report will show the following facts relative to Kentucky missions:

"The report to be made by Mr. J. G. Bow, secretary of the Kentucky board of missions, is more than satisfactory. It is the best in the history of Kentucky missions. The report will show $21,071.46 for foreign missions, putting Kentucky second in the list of states, the increase over last year being $6,411.78. For state missions there was $12,401.04; increase over last year $5,195.09. The colportage increase is about $300. The amount reported for state missions does not include any of the mountain school work, except the salaries of J. A. Burns and C. A. Dugger, designated by Broadway church, nor does it include Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Marvin's gift of more than $4,000 to Mr. Burns' school for buildings, nor the funds reported for state work by the Woman's Missionary Union, but only that which was given for state mission work, and which passed through the secretary's hands."

"The gift of Walnut street church of Louisville, is larger than any other church, owing to the contributions of Mrs. J. Lawrence Smith.

"The board of foreign missions will go to the convention absolutely out of debt."

COTTON SPINNERS CONVENTION

Charleston, S. C., May 8.—The Southern Cotton Spinners' association began its sixth annual convention today at St. John's hotel. The gathering was called to order by Dr. J. H. McAden of Charlotte, who responded to the cordial address of greeting by Mayor M. Smyth. The roll call by Secretary C. B. Bryant showed a good attendance of delegates from North and South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and other states embraced in the membership of the association. Tomorrow the visitors will be entertained as guests of the exposition.

VETERANS MEET.

Marysville, O., May 8.—The Ohio State Association of Mexican War Veterans is celebrating the fifty-sixth anniversary of the first battle of the Mexican war, Palo Alto, by holding twenty-eighth annual reunion here. The reunion continues two days, and some speakers of note are to be heard. That the ranks of the old soldiers are fast thinning out is evidenced by the fact that less than fifty veterans are present, though there is a large attendance of their families and friends.

NO BOND GIVEN YET.

Mrs. Sonnie James, who was arrested in Oklahoma on an indictment charging her with the murder of her husband, is being guarded at Murray, having been unshod thus far to give bond. A great many people are outspoken in their opinion of the grand jury that indicted the woman principally because she may have become infatuated with the man who accidentally killed her husband four years ago, and say there is no evidence against her.

LIBRARY BOARD MET AGAIN.

The members of the library board, with the exception of Rev. G. W. Perryman, who is out of the city, met last night and learned from the committee that artificial stone instead of pressed brick used over the foundation will save the city about $1,000. The board will probably substitute it for the pressed brick, but took no action last night, adjourning over to meet again at the call of the chairman.

Graceful Women

The scents of the hallstrop, violet or rose are as precious as the lovely flower whose beauty and fragrance are the result of the perfume of the bird and we can only enjoy them for a day, the beautiful woman gives the pleasure of her fragrance as a permanent blessing. The sweet, graceful, and charming woman, who is the embodiment of grace and health—the soft fragrance of a beautiful woman suggests to the senses purity, health and strength; she is the representative of civilization; she is attractive, a source of pleasure, of good taste, and an unsurpassed beauty.

DRIVERS ON A STRIKE.

COAL COMPANY WILL EMPLOY NEW MEN AT THE SCALE PRICE.

Sturgis, Ky., May 8.—Just as the miners and operators in this district had reached an agreement on the wage scale for the coming year and all local mines had begun operations, work was stopped at the Tradewater Coal company's shaft by the fourteen drivers. They refused to work for less than $2 a day. Until the company can get men to take their places at the scale price of $1.83 a day the big colliery will remain idle.

MINNESOTA REPUBLICANS.

St. Paul, Minn., May 8.—Members of the Republican state committee are in session at the Windsor hotel this afternoon to decide upon a date and place for holding the state convention. Sentiment favors an early convention, and it is probable that the gathering will be held in this city about the middle of June.

A SIMPLE QUESTION.

PADUAH PEOPLE ARE REQUESTED TO HONESTLY ANSWER THIS.

Is not the word of a representative citizen of Padua more convincing than the doubtful utterances of people living everywhere else in the Union? Read this:

Mr. W. O. Overstreet of 913 Trimble street, employed at P. F. Lally and Son's meat market, corner of Tenth and Trimble streets, says: "When a man has been refused a policy by two different insurance companies owing to kidney complaint, when his back ached continually, not only when stooped but even when he sat or reclined perfectly still, when he was weak, restless and annoyed with the kidney secretions, he naturally emphatically endorses the means employed to change his physical condition. Reading one day about Doan's Kidney Pills curing some one in a neighboring town induced me to call at DuBois and Co.'s drug store for a box. In less than a week I was so much benefited that I continued their use, and told my friends and acquaintances what unexpected results I was receiving. I don't know if I am radically cured of kidney complaint or not. I don't know if I ever will be, but there is one thing of which I am certain, at the present time I have not a symptom of my old trouble. I can be found any day at P. F. Lally's old stand, at the corner of Tenth and Trimble streets, and you are welcome to send anyone to me for a corroboration of the above."

For sale by all dealers; price, 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

SUGAR DICE.

A DRUMMER WAS SURPRISED TO FIND THEM SO FAR NORTH.

Several boys were playing with sugar dice this morning when a traveling man walked up.

"Do you know," he said, "that all the negroes in the south use sugar dice? Well they do, and very few are caught with them, for as soon as an officer makes his appearance on the scene they place the dice in their mouth and eat them. I see very few used as far north as this but feel sure that if the negroes get onto it they will adopt the scheme."

"Now," he said, "I have no more trouble, and will continue to wear the wire until the end of my days."

There are hundreds of similar cases among the colored people but few have any particular object in wearing such other than to ward against "hoodoo" and bad luck.

Many men and even children wear common leather straps.

MUNICIPAL MEETING.

OFFICIALS FROM ALL OVER ALABAMA AT MONTGOMERY.

Montgomery, Ala., May 8.—Mayors and other officials from nearly every city of northern Alabama and from several cities of the southern part of the state are gathered here for the second annual meeting of the League of Municipalities of Alabama. The convention opened this afternoon with the following program:

Papers on "Municipal Ownership of Public Utilities," by Mayor J. E. Blackwood of Gadsden; "The Benefits of Municipal Organization," Mayor O. G. Simpson of Tuscaloosa; "The Debt Creating Power of the Small Towns in Alabama as Affected by the New Constitution," L. M. Smith, city clerk of Jasper. The sessions of the convention are to continue until Saturday.

WHIST PLAYERS AT PORTLAND.

Portland, Ore., May 8.—Devotees of whist, members of the Pacific Whist Association, are gathered here from far and near for the annual meeting and tournament of the association. Play began today, and will continue through the remainder of the week. Whist clubs of Tacoma, Seattle, Olympia and other cities are represented.

WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP

CUE EXPERTS BEGIN A SERIES OF MATCHES AT BROOKLYN.

New York, May 8—Two of the foremost cue experts in the world, William Clearwater of Pittsburgh and Grant Eby of Brooklyn, begin a series of matches in Brooklyn tonight to determine the world's championship. Clearwater is the present holder of the title and expresses no fear regarding the outcome of the contests. Eby, however, has recently shown splendid form and his friends are confident of his ability to give the Pittsburgh player a hard tussle for the championship.

DAILY THOUGHT.

Pessimism is the mood of depression, and depression always involves, if not disease, at least a decline of power, a lowering of the tone, a sinking of the great forces of life.

—Hamilton W. Mabie.

THE WEATHER.

The temperature this morning was the coolest for several weeks reaching as low as 53. Yesterday morning the temperature was only 58 but seemed cooler than today. The weather predictions for today and tonight are fair tonight and warmer in the west portion. Friday fair.

Let everybody decorate for the carnival.

The purple and white are beginning to show themselves in many places.

We trust the visiting doctors will not take offense at the action of the stranger within our gates who last evening took poison because he wanted to die and then made straight for the doctors' convention. It was probably just a little peculiarity of his.

The papers that have been vilifying President Roosevelt for his alleged refusal to allow General Miles and Admiral Dewey to receive French honors have been forced to retract. No such announcements were authorized, and the official denial makes the anti-administration papers look like thirty cents.

The plan of sweeping Broadway early in the evening, as was done last night, raising clouds of dust to strangle people and float into the stores, is an abominable nuisance, and there is no excuse for it. It ought to be done after the streets are clear of people, and all the business houses are closed.

Representative Irwin will appeal to the rivers and harbors committee not to oppose his appropriation for a dam in Salt river. We are the opinion that Salt river has been damned a great deal already, but we are willing for it to be done again, for we want plenty of water for the use of the next Democratic candidate.

If the anti-administration papers would devote as much space to the official and reliable reports of army officers as they do to irresponsible, exaggerated and highly improbable stories of returning soldiers, there would be less of a false impression created in regard to the Philippine situation and treatment of the rebel traitors.

Governor Jeff Davis, of Arkansas, is funny enough to have been a clown. He has pardoned a negro on condition that he go to Massachusetts and live. This will no doubt make him the envy of every comedian in the country, but if Governor Davis accepts a position in a show, it ought to be a circus. Common, everyday show life is not strenuous enough for him. He ought to join Buckskin Bill.

A short time ago, when the April pay roll was being prepared by the finance committee of the council, it is understood Fire Chief Wood wanted to provide for the firemen on a basis fixed by the second class charter, but some of the councilmen promptly sat down on the proposition, declaring that the firemen were appointed under the third class charter, and couldn't draw any more salary under the second class charter than they could when they were appointed. These same councilmen a few nights ago voted to pay themselves $3 for every extra meeting, although they were also elected under the third class charter, and the law says their compensation shall not be changed during their term of office. The law allows them $52 a year salary, no more and no less. At the rate they have been having called meetings they will be able to get about 72 times that much this year.

Admiral Schley says he is sorry Admiral Sampson died. He is doubtless sincere when he declares that no one ever heard him say an unkind word of the deceased. There was no occasion for it. There was never any reason for enmity between the two admirals. No one ever heard Admiral Sampson say anything ill of Admiral Schley. During the entire Santiago controversy Admiral Sampson was ill and unconscious of anything that was going on about him. Some of the Democratic papers claimed he was only feigning, but his condition grew worse until death proved that his relatives were not trying to enlist any sympathy in his behalf by claiming that he was ill. There was never any real cause for a misunderstanding between the two officers. It was their friends who caused all the mischief and did all the talking. All the bitter things that have been said were by the partisan admirers of the two men. Personally they never said anything about one another, and now that Admiral Sampson is dead, it is hoped the unhappy controversy which no certainly did not desire or bring about will end forever.

ATTEMPT TO BURN A MILL.

Nicholasville, Ky., May 8.—An attempt was made last night to burn the flouring mill belonging to the Star Milling company here. The fire was extinguished before much damage was done, however.

TO DEFINE DISTRICT.

Washington, May 8.—Representative Moss is trying to have the judiciary committee take up the bill defining the boundaries of the Bowling Green division of the Western Kentucky judicial district.

Mr. P. D. Fitzpatrick, engineer of the Louisville division of the I. C., was in the city last night on business, leaving this morning for Nortonville.

A BREATHING SPELL.

If the Consumptive could only keep from getting worse it would be some encouragement.

Scott's Emulsion at least gives tired nature a breathing spell from the exhausting conflict with disease.

Rich nourishment, strength to repair bodily waste, new life for the lung, these are what Scott's Emulsion brings.

Often it enables nature to gather force enough to throw off the disease altogether.

Scott's Emulsion is valuable at the beginning. Then is when cure is most certain. But in any stage of the disease Scott's Emulsion counteracts the work of destruction and reinforces nature.

WAS A FINE MEETING

Compliments on all Sides of the Present State Medical Society.

Visitors Continue to Arrive From Many Cities—Interesting Papers Read.

TONIGHT THE RECEPTION AND DANCE

This morning's session of the Kentucky Medical Association opened with 135 enrolled and the enthusiasm of the meeting at its highest.

Dr. Horace T. Rivers, secretary of the Southwestern Kentucky society, has a desk at the city hall and is taking dues and receiving applications for membership. There have been few applicants to this society but the state society has over 80 applicants to date.

The first paper read this morning was read by Dr. J. T. Reddick of the city. The paper was entered yesterday but as the program was unfinished the society took up today where yesterday's program was read to. Dr. Reddick's paper was one of the best and most thoroughly discussed read so far and he received many compliments on this score. He covered the subject "Puerperal Eclampsia" as thoroughly as possible to cover it.

Dr. Walter B. Gossett of Louisville read a paper on Venereal which was most excellent and on which the doctor received many compliments.

Secretary Bailey said this morning in regard to the meeting that it was one of the best he had ever attended and he has been an officer of the society for many years.

"We have been more royally entertained than possible to describe," he said. "We have seen more enthusiastic exhibits and the best speeches made and taking the meeting all in all I think that it will prove the most successful ever held. At the banquet last night we had a royal good time and will have occasion to remember Paducah."

The exhibition room, the city court room, is one of the prettiest arranged ever seen. The judge's bench has been converted into a display counter and medicines of every description and surgical instruments of every kind can be seen in countless numbers. This will truly prove the greatest meet in the history of the society.

One very peculiar case has been brought to the city for examination, it is that of Mr. F. M. Harper of Milledgeville. The gentleman is suffering from an enlargement of the lymphatic gland and the case is one of the few ever seen in these parts. Mr. Harper is also affected with what the doctors call "rubber skin" but this is an affection often seen. He can stretch his skin out several inches with no pain and yet if any other person should attempt the same he would hardly try it again soon. He is Dr. William Graves, of Laketon, patient.

There have been other cases brought before the society but this is one of the most peculiar that has come under notice.

This evening at 10 o'clock the reception will be held at the Palmer house, followed by a dance. About 400 persons have been invited to the reception and an enjoyable evening is anticipated.

TODAY'S MEETINGS.

The papers read today have been so interesting and so thoroughly discussed that there will not be the time to finish today's program, it is feared.

The paper by Dr. Cartledge of Louisville was not read.

The following were read this morning: "Medical treatment of Cholelithiasis"—R. A. Bate, M.D., Louisville; R. D. Pratt, M.D., Shelbyville; J. G. Bogle, M.D., Danville.

Dr. J. "Lively" Johnson read his article on "The Gall Bladder" in the forenoon instead of the afternoon, which left the following papers for this afternoon:

Should Syphilis Marry—W. R. Knie, M.D., Louisville.

Nasal Obstructions—Dudley S. Reynolds, M.D., Louisville.

Chancery of the Tonsils, with reports of six cases—William Chetham, M.D., Louisville.

The Mammary Gland—A Plea in Equity—C. C. Lewis, M.D., Owensboro.

Suggestive Therapeutics, or Psychological Medicine—Anne G. Sedam, M.D., Covington.

Bloodless Amputation of the Breast—J. G. Carpenter, M.D., Stanford.

The Hand in Factory Surgery—C. O. Godshaw, M.D., Louisville.

This afternoon x-ray surgery is being discussed, and following this there will be several reports of committees.

Last night the throng of visitors had been augmented by many new arrivals. Those who have registered with Secretary Steele Bailey are as follows: J. S. Moore, New Hope; F. L. Lapsley, Paris; J. E. Wells, Cynthia; R. A. Bate, Louisville; T. B. Greeley, Meadow Lawn; G. M. Reddish, Somerset; H. T. Rivers, Paducah; Frank Boyd, Paducah; N. L. Rogers, Wickliffe; J. A. Minish, Poplar Plains; L. T. ### MOCK MARRIAGE.

WHICH IS NOW SAID TO HAVE BEEN THE REAL THING.

New York, May 8—There is great consternation among members of the Jewish societies at Yonkers as an outcome of the recent Purim ball.

During the evening one hundred couples went through a mock marriage ceremony and now the rabbi who officiated is said to have declared that couples so married are bound in the eyes of the church, and therefore in the eyes of the law.

NATURE PROVIDES ICE HOUSE.
Food for Birds That is Preserved in the Arctic Regions.

The number of birds that go to the arctic regions to breed is vast beyond conception. They go not by thousands, but by tens and hundreds of thousands, and because nowhere else in the world does nature provide at the same time and in the same place such a lavish profusion of food.

The vegetation consists of cranberry, cloudberry and crowberry bushes, and the rest forced by the perpetual sunshine of the arctic summer, bear enormous crops of fruit. But the crop is not ripe until the middle and end of the arctic summer, and if the fruit-eating birds had to wait until it was ripe they would starve in the meantime, as they arrive on the very day of the melting of the snow.

But each year the snow descends on an immense crop of ripe fruit before the birds have time to gather it. It is thus preserved perfectly fresh and pure, and the melting of the snow discloses the bushes, with the unconsumed last year's crop hanging on them or lying ready to be eaten, on the ground.

The frozen meal stretches across the breadth of northern Asia. It never decays and is accessible the moment the snow melts. The same heat which thaws the fruit brings into being the most prolific insect life in the world—the mosquito swarms on the tundra. No European can live there without a veil after the snow melts. The gun barrels are black with them and clouds of them often obscure the sight.

Thus the insect-eating birds have only to open their mouths to fill them with mosquitoes, and thus the presence of swarms of cliff chaff, pipis and the wa-tails in this arctic region is accounted for.

SUN'S DAILY STORY

TO AMUSE MR. BREWSTER BARRINGER.

BY SARA LINDSAY COLEMAN.
(Copyright, 1902, by Daily Story Pub. Co.)

"Caroline, if you will—" "But I won't," Caroline frowned.

"You've been such a dear," Miss Van Horn spoke vehemently—it was Miss Van Horn's mother who gave the house party—and you look perfectly beautiful lying back among those cushions! It won't be long until dinner, and he is very clever, and you are clever, and—"

"Very well," Miss Nicholson gave a little sigh. "Who is he?" she asked, but Miss Van Horn was out of hearing.

Miss Van Horn recrossed the long portico to the vine-shaded corner where the hammock swung slowly, presented Mr. Barringer to Miss Nicholson, and departed.

Miss Nicholson regarded her long, slim hands as if she saw them for the first time; she turned them over and looked attentively at the pink palms. Mr. Barringer's moody eyes were fixed on her.

"It's very hard to amuse clever men," Miss Nicholson's voice was plaintive. "Last night there was a young congressman at dinner. I knew I was to go out to dinner with him, so I studied political questions all day—Cuba, the outlook in Porto Rico, the improvement in the Philippines. I determined to shine, and I had absolutely no opportunity. I don't believe," reflectively, "that he talked of anybody or anything but myself. He said my lips were like cherries after a rain. I think they are more like woodland berries, don't you?" The girl's eyes were lifted, to quickly retreat behind the long lashes. "And he said my eyes were mountain mists; and my hair a silken, golden mesh. I was sorry he came down to platitude when he mentioned my hair. It was disappointing in the congressman. But perhaps you are not interested in congressmen?"

"No," the man spoke deliberately, "I am not."

"In baseball?" hopefully.

"No."

"In golf?" pleadingly.

"No."

"You dance?"

"No."

"You must be a very stupid person," Miss Nicholson said. "I think it is easier to amuse the congressman."

Mr. Brewster Barringer was silent. Miss Nicholson looked down on the red tiles that swayed below them. A very little smile twitched the corners of her mouth.

"I met a Mr. Brewster Barringer down in Florida one winter," she said. "He was engaged to a girl who was visiting the Peypons. But perhaps you are not interested in the Peypons. If you are not," in a severe tone, "I will leave you to enjoy the twilight in solitude."

"I am interested in the girl who visited the Peypons," he admitted.

"Oh," her red lips parted suddenly, disclosing ravishing dimples and the gleam of regular teeth.

But Mr. Brewster Barringer was watching a dusky moth drift toward the mass of brilliant lilies.

The girl was called a flirt, but I don't think she meant to flirt. She couldn't be unconscious of the admiration she received. She was rather a pretty girl, you know."

"I shouldn't have used that adjective," the man said, grimly, and this time he saw the flush of Miss Nicholson's smile.

"No?" she was still smiling. He had suddenly decided that a deep dimple on the left side of lips that parted in a sweet, eager way was the loveliest thing in the world.

"The girl was glad there were men in the world who loved her, all women are." Into Miss Nicholson's voice there had suddenly come an earnest note. "They plead with her, or sighed before her; but pleading or sighing her nature retreated before their advance. Then Mr. Brewster Barringer should have satisfied him.

President Tucker of Dartmouth College, with his family, has spent a number of summers on a farm in New Hampshire. During the past year, however, the pedagogue was greatly annoyed by two things—the proximity of the pig-pen and the manners of the "hired girl." Therefore when the owner of the farm wrote to him recently, asking whether he would again have the president of Dartmouth as his boarder, the latter sent back a decided negative, stating his reasons for not wishing to return. In a few days he received the following reply:

"Dear Sir: There ain't been no hogs since you left, and Hannah has want-girl; he hadn't a penny that he didn't earn for himself, and was different from the men she knew—men of the golf links and clubs and dances. He was alive! She caught his enthusiasm, and gloried in his strength and in his belief in himself."

Miss Nicholson no longer lounged on the hammock pillows; she sat very straight and stiff.

"The man did not understand the girl," she spoke quietly, but a spirit of contempt hovered about her lips and quivered her nostrils. "He viewed her from an external point. He saw the gowns she wore, the jewels—they were the environment of her life—mere adjuncts, but indispensable. He thought they were herself—that she was all bilowy chiffon and perfumed lace."

"He thought?" the man interrupted.

"The girl would rather have tramped ten miles through rain and mud with the man to whom she was engaged than tool a coach through half a dozen columns of a society paper with young Peyton; but, she went with young Peyton, who was a guest in his mother's house. There she reserves even from the man a woman loves. She didn't tell him that she wanted to leave it all and be dependent upon him; she didn't tell him that bare walls would not crush her spirit; she didn't tell him that she was young and strong and brave and that she knew how to live his struggling, climbing life; she didn't tell him any of it—but she showed him the richness of her love—beneath in her heart was the solid ground of trust and faith; this he knew."

"Miss Nicholson—Caroline?"

"Mr. Brewster Barringer broke the engagement himself. A word from the girl, who was eager to explain, would have straightened things; but she was given no opportunity to explain—in fact, she was not allowed to vindicate herself. She suffered—young, tender things do sometimes suffer—but she pulled through." Miss Nicholson's voice was quite cheerful. "Some of her died, but the most of her lived."

HORSESHOE LODGE

Sensational Reports From Cincinnati Excite Local Members.

The Story Printed Throughout the State Denied by Deputy J. W. Husted Who is Here.

EXPLAINS HOW THE ERROR WAS MADE

Considerable interest was aroused in the city this morning by the publication in the Louisville papers of a dispatch from Cincinnati, as follows:

"Cincinnati, O., May 7.—Sensation was caused in Covington today in fraternal circles by a report made by W. H. Hayes and T. M. Gleason, a special committee sent by Covington Lodge, No. 154, Knights of the Golden Horseshoe, to Richmond, Va., to investigate the standing and books of the order. It was found that the supreme lodge had no office in Richmond. They could see no books and could not see Supreme Recorder F. L. Aikman, who, it was said, had not been there for three months, although letters to the local lodge came from there."

"The Covingtonians called the attention of federal officials to the case. On their return here today Hayes received a letter from State Insurance Commissioner Cheenan, saying the lodge is one of the so-called fraternal organizations when, in fact, it is simply a concern, as are many others of the same character, operated for the sole benefit of the officers and managers.

"The local lodge will meet Monday and disband. It comprises most of the prominent officials of Kenton county in its membership."

The local lodge, which was organized a few weeks ago, has about 100 members who have paid $6 initiation fee and assessments amounting to from one to two dollars, and there was consequently more than the usual interest among the members.

Mr. J. W. Husted, deputy organizer, who has been in the city several weeks, called at local newspaper offices to make a statement explaining the facts.

Mr. Husted states that the headquarters are in Richmond and that the supreme commander is Rev. C. N. Van Honen, one of the best known ministers there. The supreme lodge business is being transacted by Mr. A. C. Goode, district deputy of Virginia, who looks after all business and correspondence. It seems the Covington delegation did not look very hard or it would have found Mr. Goode.

Mr. Aikman, the supreme secretary, is not in Richmond, according to Mr. Husted, because he decided last February that it was unnecessary to remain there all the time, and he is now doing the same kind of work as Mr. Husted, organizing lodges in Georgia.

The statement of the Kentucky insurance commissioner is merely an opinion, which he holds against all fraternal orders, according to Mr. Husted. The latter is confident that the facts will be published at once in the papers printing the Cincinnati dispatch, and that the members will learn that nothing has been misrepresented to them, and that the order is all claimed for it. He will call a meeting of the local lodge for tomorrow evening and satisfy the members as to the facts.

THE COURTS

DOCKETS ALL BRIEF AND UNINTERESTING AT PRESENT.

CIRCUIT COURT.

In the case of C. H. Williams, administrator, against James Webb, the commissioner filed a report of the assets and liabilities.

In the case of Nora Cook against Pat O'Brien, Attorneys Sam Houston and James Ray were allowed $120 as part of the costs.

A motion was made to transfer the case of Robert H. Boyd against George Grubbs to the equity docket.

The case of T. B. Stone Lumiter company against the Tennessee River Transportation company was set for the 20th day of the term.

POLICE COURT.

Judge Sanders held police court in the marshal's office this morning again, the regular court room having been assigned to the medical firms for a display room during the state medical meet.

Richard L. Schree, a sewing machine man from Rising Sun, Ind., was fined $1 and costs for plain drunk.

Morris McCann, white, for fast driving, was fined $5 and costs.

Ernest Elmendorf and William Johnson, white, were fined $20 and costs on motion of the prosecuting attorney, for gambling. Johnson was yesterday acquitted of the charge of being a common gambler.

The grand larceny case against George Herrington was set for Thursday.

ANOTHER BODY.

MRS. BURKE'S REMAINS WERE CAUGHT BELOW THE WRECK YESTERDAY.

Another body was found below the City of Pittsburgh wreck yesterday afternoon. It was caught near Caledonia, and proved to be the remains of Mrs. Burke, one of the Owensboro family of eleven lost. She had on her clothes and $55 in money was found in a pocket.

ASCENSION DAY.

This is Ascension Day, the fortieth day after Easter, when the Savior arose. It is celebrated everywhere, and there are services in the Catholic church the same as on the Sabbath. There were two well attended services here and there will be another at the St. Francis De Sales church tonight.

Justice R. J. Barber returned today from McComb City, where he had been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Jack Flynn.

NORTONVILLE DEAL

Paducah Capital is Interested in the Transaction.

They Will Develop Coal Lands and Build up the Town.

A syndicate composed of Hopkinsville, Paducah, Indianapolis and Ft. Wayne people have bought the Norton interests here comprising nineteen hundred acres of fine coal lands, lying alongside the L. and N. and I. C. railroads, besides retaining options on several thousand acres more, writes a Nortonville correspondent. The property bought includes the hotel site and all town lots, hundreds of which lie right on the railroads.

The purpose of the company will be to develop the coal lands and offer all inducements to manufacturing concerns to locate plants there. On consideration of the excellent railroad facilities giving the town direct communication with all sections of the country, with cheapness of fuel and a plentiful water supply, and enterprising agents behind affairs, it does seem that Nortonville at last has a chance for the future.

The deal was mentioned in The Sun several months ago.

MISS VIOLA ALLEN.

THE COMPANY ARRIVED THIS AFTERNOON—HOUSE ALMOST SOLD OUT.

Miss Viola Allen and her troupe arrived this afternoon at 8:30 o'clock over the Illinois Central, and tonight The Kentucky will have one of the largest and most representative crowds of the season.

Almost the entire house has been sold out, but there are a number of good seats yet, which will probably be disposed of before the doors open.

Tonight night the regular season closes with The Royal Italian band.

Manager English announces that the curtain, on account of the long performance and the dance at the Palmer afterwards, will go up at The Kentucky this evening at 8:15 promptly, and those who arrive later will not be seated until after the first act.

The matinee of Ellery's band to-morrow afternoon will not begin until 3:30 as the school children will all attend.

TOOK TWENTY GRAINS.

BUT HESTER CRUTCHFIELD WILL IN ALL PROBABILITY RECOVER.

Hester Crutfield, colored, of Eighth and Jackson streets, took morphine last night but is better today and may pull through.

She purchased 23 grains of the drug and took about 20 of the amount purchased. Dr. Davis attended her and after working with her all night announced that she may recover.

GROCERY CLOSED AGAIN.

The grocery store of Mr. Henry Dickey, corner Sixth and Jackson streets, which was closed on an attachment in the suit brought by Tope Stegar for $250, remains closed and the defendants have not yet made a bond to the sheriff. This is the second time the store has been closed within two weeks.

QUIET HOME WEDDING

Mr. James E Cooper and Miss Carrie Rieke Married This Morning.

Marriage This Evening of Mr. Will Karnes and Mrs. Cummings, at Bride's Home.

ANOTHER WEDDING TWENTY-SEVENTH

Mr. James E. Cooper, of Hopkinsville, and Miss Carrie L. Rieke, of the city, were this morning united in marriage at the residence of the bride in the West End.

The wedding was a quiet one and was attended by the couple's relatives and a few friends only. Rev. W. F. Cave, of the First Presbyterian church, officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper will leave tonight for Hopkinsville, where they will reside.

Mr. William M. Karnes, Jr., son of Contractor William Karnes, and Mrs. Annie L. Cummings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kreutzer, of Monroe street, will be married tonight at the residence of the bride at 8:30 o'clock. Rev. George W. Briggs of the Broadway Methodist church officiating.

The marriage will be a quiet affair, only a few of the couple's most intimate friends and relatives to be present. It had been known for several weeks that the marriage would take place but the couple not desiring to have the announcement made so soon, withheld the authority until today.

They will be at home to their friends tomorrow at the residence of the bride where they will hereafter reside.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Mr. John Frist and Miss Annie Ellenbrook on the 27th of this month at the home of the bride on Clay street. Miss Ellenbrook resides with her sister, Mrs. James Sherrill, on Clay street between Ninth and Tenth, and is a highly respected young lady. Mr. Frist has for several years been connected with Mr. L. W. Beall's grocery.

NOTHING DEFINITE.

IT IS NOT KNOWN WHETHER THERE WILL BE A BOUT OR NOT.

It has not yet been decided whether there will be a sparring exhibition between Pierce and Ryan in Paducah or under the auspices of any Paducah organization or not, but there is some talk of having it on some boat Sunday.

Mayor D. A. Utter stated today in regard to his part of the prevention of the exhibition Tuesday night that he did not mean to close the theater, but simply issued orders to stop the exhibition if it started and arrest the principals if they violated the law.

CONDUCTOR CONWAY FINED.

Conductor Jake Conway of the city, who runs on an I. C. freight, was fined $50 and costs at Mayfield yesterday for abusing Dr. E. A. Stevens of Mayfield, whom he put off a train between Wingo and Perryburg. It seems the doctor had a ticket that the conductor did not recognize. He threatens to sue the railroad.
